

GwFR'2017 – International Conference on Groundwater in Fractured Rocks and a session in honour of Jiri Krásny

Rules for Abstracts and Extended Abstracts

The participants will have two possibilities, according to their choices: send an Abstract (maximum 2 pages), or an Extended Abstract (maximum 4 pages) by 31 March 2017

According to the quality of the received documents, by decision of the Scientific Committee, after the Conference some authors can be invited to send a full paper to publish as a book chapter which will be negotiated with a publisher

Chaves, Portugal, June, 05-07, 2017

GENERAL RULES

The authors must comply with the following rules for the Abstracts and Extended Abstracts:

- Deadline: 31 March 2017
  - Dimension of the page: A4
  - Margins (cm): Up, 3.0, Down, 2.5; Left, 3.0; Right, 2.0
  - Word processor: Microsoft Word
  - Title: Times New Roman, size 12, bold, capital letters, single space, centred
  - Authors: Times New Roman, size 11, bold, single space, centred
  - Address: Times New Roman, size 9, single space, centred
  - Text: Times New Roman, size 11, single space, justified
  - No spaces between paragraphs
  - No advance on the first line of each paragraph
  - Write the text without any formulae (formulae as figures)
  - References must comply with the following format:
    - Smith I, Foster A, Parker D 2014. Fractured Rock Aquifers in New Zeland. Fractured Rock Aquifers of the World, 45-68.
- And, inside the text: "Smith et al. 2014", "Smith & Foster 2015", "Smith 2016"

Please send your Abstract or Extended Abstract by e-mail to gwfr2017@gmail.com. More information can be obtained by the same e-mail address if the instructions are unclear or unspecific.

---

SPECIFIC RULES FOR ABSTRACTS

- Maximum length: 2 pages
- Apart from the title, the subtitle "Abstract" must be added in the beginning of the text
- Just a second subtitle is allowed in the final of the text "References"
- A chapter "Acknowledgments" can be introduced before the "References"
- No titles or subtitles will be used apart from the two previously defined
- Figures or tables can be used in the text
- Keywords: In the final of the abstract (maximum 5)

In the following line, please refer in what topic you want your document to be framed (see 1st Announcement, Topic A to L).

---

SPECIFIC RULES FOR EXTENDED ABSTRACTS

- Maximum length: 4 pages
- The Extended Abstract must begin with "Abstract" (maximum half a page), followed by one empty line, the "Keywords" (maximum 5), and again 2 empty lines
- Sub-titles:

1. HYDROGEOLOGY (TIMES NEW ROMAN, SIZE 11, BOLD, CAPITAL LETERS, SINGLE SPACE, JUSTIFIED,)

2.1. Hydrogeology (Times New Roman, size 11, bold, single space, justified, with a line space before each subtitle)

2.1.1. Hydrogeology (Times New Roman, size 11, single space, justified, with a line space before each subtitle)

2.1.1.1. Hydrogeology (Times New Roman, size 11, italic, single space, justified, with a line space before each subtitle)

- A chapter "Acknowledgments" can be introduced before the "References"

In the last line, please refer in what topic you want your document to be framed (see 1st Announcement, Topic A to L).